NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The fallout of an angry woman led to the killing of John Bergin, moving picture actor, by George A. Cline, in the Cline home at Edgewater, N. J., it was revealed this afternoon.

Bergin had begun courting 19-year-old Alice Thornton, a beautiful blonde, but Miss Thornton said she broke off relations when she found Bergin was paid to be a "boob" to Mrs. Cline. She declared Cline became suspicious of Bergin and that she finally revealed all she knew of the relations of Bergin and Mrs.
Cline at Saratoga Lake, N. Y. The tragedy followed.

"She Was His 'First Love,'" said Alice and I were together."

"I was with him for two years," said Miss Thornton. "I did not know he was married. He assured me that although he had flirtations with girls, he had never met his true love until he became acquainted with me. We got along swimmingly at first. He knew a lot of movie people and I was confident he could help me. I felt that I had the talent to become a star."

GIRLS IN COLLEGE FROM 39 STATES

Situated in the heart of the Ozarks, at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, The Switzerland of America, Crescent College has had attractive girls in the past few years, from nearly every state in the union. Crescent College is styled, "The Charm College," for it is fully accredited, both in the two years' college work and four years' preparatory, by the universities. It is different because it emphasizes the social and recreational features ordinarily found in the traditional boarding school. Though non-denominational the Christian spirit runs higher than in most church schools. Girls do not acquire the ugly habits here so commonly acquired in the larger enrollment schools. Only 80 students are accepted and they represent at least 20 different states each year. They play, swim and work with their teachers with equal delight.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of talcum powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads, break—wash, the face and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the skin without any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and oil and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get rid of them they become hard. The talcum powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads as they wash right out leaving the pores free and even and in their natural condition. Absolutely trouble with these negativity humors should certainly try this simple method—Advertisement.

TROTTER TO TRIAL AS EMBEZZLER

Minister-Secretary for Brooks Institute at Hartshorne Held

MALESTER, Aug. 29.—The Rev.
J. C. Trotter, minister-secretary of the Brooks Institute at Hartshorne and pastor of the Methodist church in South, at Hallsville, must stand trial in the district court for alleged embezzlement of funds belonging to that institution.

Defense Calls No Witnesses.
Ending the state's side of the preliminary hearing, after conclusion of Andrew Hootch's testimony at 11 o'clock this morning, Trotter's attorney, J. C. Trotter, called no witnesses to the evidence introduced and was overruled by Justice W. A. Treadwell, who presided.

After hurried consultation with the defendant, Attorney Wallace Wilkinson, representing him, declared Trotter would introduce his witnesses and that their side would be heard.

Judge Treadwell announced that in his opinion evidence given by the state was sufficient and he held Re. J. C. Trotter for trial. Bond was set at $5,000 and the former minister was committed to jail in Sefau.

The date of Miss Audrey Campbell's trial has not been set. She was arrested on the same charge at the time Trotter was taken into custody at Hartshorne. As heard evidence of Brooks Institute she acted as cashier.

Bookkeeper Testifies.
The first witness on the state's side was Margaret Williams, bookkeeper for the Brooks Institute since March 1, 1922. Miss Williams testified that check after check was drawn by Trotter and that she had been turned over to her for entry in her cashbook and deposit in the bank. Her duties, she stated, were to enter the money turned over to her by Miss Campbell and to deposit it in the bank.

C. H. Hefley, auditor, who was called in to audit the books of the Brooks Institute, was placed on the stand. He testified that of the $1,637.16 collected, $561.32 was turned in to the books, leaving $1,075.84 alleged to have been in-accounted for.

One of the alleged facts brought out in the examination of the auditor was that only $1.91 of a $40 contribution donated for the benefit of a blind patient named Adams reached the Brooks Institute hospital fund.

Witnesses testifying to this contribution were four young ladies who were members of Reverend Trotter's Hallsville church.

'UGLY' STUDENTS BARRED

Instructor at California University Accused of "Selecting" Pupils.

BERKELEY, Cal., Aug. 29.—Alleged disbarment of students from class because they lacked "good looks" brought scathing comment from the pen of R. B. Coons, editor of the Daily Californian, student monthpiece today.

"Some of us were excluded from a particularly desirable course last week because we were not 'good looking,'" runs the editorial. "In fact, the instructor not only intimated but practically ultimatumed to the effect that the Apollos and Venuses, or as near thereto as possible, should comprise her class and none others. We just recently being denied the uplifting benefits derived by the mere association with the handsomely featured species."

Mrs. Sarah Huntman, assistant professor of public speaking who is
alleged to have barred the "ugly-looking" students from her class," declared today her remarks were made in a facetious vein and intended only to impress the necessity of good looks and a proper presence in making a success in public speaking.
